

FIGHT FOR SIGHT AND NANOS JOINT AWARD

NEW YORK and MINNEAPOLIS, September 27, 2013 -- Fight for Sight (FFS) and the North American Neuro-Ophthalmology Society (NANOS) today announced that we have, again, created a partnership to fund a joint award for 2013/2014 to better serve the missions of both organizations.

The joint grant is called the Fight for Sight-NANOS Research Award. The selection criteria as established by the FFS Scientific Review Committee (SRC), to fund one Fellowship for residents or fellows in either ophthalmology or neurology who are interested in pursuing neuro-ophthalmology research.

We are pleased to announce Dr. Linus Da-Shih Sun of Columbia University as this year's recipient of the Fight for Sight-NANOS Research Award.

The Fight for Sight-NANOS Research Award will include a $3,000 research stipend from FFS, accompanied by a $1,500 travel grant from NANOS, for the grant recipient to present a research paper based on the funded work at the NANOS annual meeting the following year (travel grant contingent upon presentation as either a platform or poster presentation). The terms, guidelines and funding mechanisms of FFS' present grant structure will be applied.

About Fight for Sight: Since 1946, Fight for Sight has invested in the future of eye and vision research by funding promising scientists early in their careers. FFS has granted over $20 million in research that has contributed directly or indirectly to major advances in ophthalmology and vision research, including development of the IOL, aspects of donor cornea preservation, various use of ophthalmic lasers, glaucoma therapies, and gene therapy. Please visit www.fightforfight.org for further information.

About NANOS: NANOS is an international organization of more than 500 members who seek to promote the field of neuro-ophthalmology by supporting all forms of education, encouraging research, fostering clinical expertise and maintaining cordial exchanges. Accordingly, NANOS and its members sponsor an annual scientific meeting, publish the Journal of Neuro-Ophthalmology, recognize young researchers, and contribute to numerous professional seminars. Please visit www.nanosweb.org for further information.

Janel Fick, Executive Director
NANOS
info@nanosweb.org

Arthur Makar, Executive Director
Fight for Sight
arthur@fightforsight.org