Local Restaurant Guide

From tucsonfoodie.com by Erica Dombrowski

Barrio Cuisine is a Native American bistro that combines the flavors and traditions of both the Pascua Yaqui Tribe and the Tohono O'odham Nation. The restaurant offers a welcoming and comfortable atmosphere to enjoy lunch, happy hour or dinner. With floor to ceiling windows lining the perimeter, and an open floor plan, the atmosphere adapts well to the beautiful Tucson weather. Seating is available in the main dining area, at the bar, or at a community table that gathers around an open fire pit.

Hub Restaurant & Creamery is open for brunch, lunch, dinner, and most importantly, dessert (homemade ice cream!). This loft-feel surrounded with brick walls and unique décor offers a dark, intimate ambiance in the evening. They serve menu items such as Corned Beef Hash and Chicken Pot Pie, but the most exciting part of the night is the dessert. End your meal with creamy, homemade ice-cream in unique flavors like Oatmeal Cookie Dough and Spiced Cider.

Maynards Market & Kitchen is a light, airy market where you can buy a variety of food, drinks, and other goods. This intimate area features a deli, coffee bar, bakery, and provides food such as Buttermilk Blueberry Muffins and Truffled Egg Salad. Also, Maynards features a small retail section where you can purchase items from vendors around the Tucson area.

Diablo Burger is now open in its new downtown location and offers burgers that are made from "100% local, grass-fed, open-range raised, antibiotic-free, and growth-hormone-free beef". With a description that detailed, how can it not be tasty? With burger names such as the Monk and Big Daddy Kane, Diablo Burger has a different variety for everyone! And you can't pass up on a side of their Frites, freshly-cut, Belgian-style fries.

Sparkroot Coffee Bar + Fare offers Blue Bottle Coffee and tea, along with simple made dishes such as House-Made Walnut Granola and Artisanal Pressed Sandwiches on Ciabatta. The construction of this coffee bar has a busy, urban-feel, using reclaimed barn wood and stainless steel accents, where customers can enjoy high quality coffee. Relax during the day or later in the evening where you can enjoy a selection of beer and wine.

Casa Vicente is "Un Restaurante Español" that offers traditional dishes from Castilla, Spain and specialty dishes from other areas of Spain. Live music can be found here along with their distinctive Tapas, a small dish with an assortment of different flavors. Paella is another common dish, which is a traditional rice dish with various meats, seafood, or vegetables.

The Hotel Congress's Cup Café offers a full bar and dining room with features like their Build Your-Own Bloody Mary Bar. Open for breakfast, lunch, and dinner, Cup Café's menu offers items from their Tofu Scramble to Pan Seared Ruby Trout. After your meal head over to Club Congress where you can enjoy live shows and dancing!

Pizzeria Bianco now has a location in downtown Tucson. James Beard Award winning chef, Chris Bianco takes no shortcuts and uses the highest quality local ingredients he can source. You may have to wait awhile for a table, so definitely plan on putting your name in and grabbing a drink at the bar or nearby. It's well worth the wait.

Proper is part of SLO Restaurant Concepts, serving brunch and dinner. Their focus is on local, fresh, and organic food, which shows through their business strategy as well. Reclaimed materials, like beetle-kill pine and wood to be exact, are used in their restaurant. Menu items include a Sweet Ancho Sausage Biscuit for breakfast or Chickpea Sandwich with Yogurt, Cucumber and Pickled Salad for lunch.

El Charro is the nation's oldest Mexican restaurant, featuring award-winning recipes like their colorful Banderas Enchiladas and Hand-Made Chicken Tomatillos Tamales. Mouth-watering? The colorful and historic atmosphere provides an authentic Mexican experience; just order their special ¡Cerveza-Rita! and you'll be dancing on the tables in no time!

Baggins is voted one of Tucson's best sandwiches for 15 years, offering personal bagged lunches that are great for on-the-go customers. Enjoy one of their specialty sandwiches like the Unforgettable or indulge in a grilled creation like the Southwestern Tuna, my personal favorite!

Unplugged Wine Bar provides you with the most authentic wines around, offering a variety of certified organic to handpicked wines. In addition, they offer a selection of beers as well as shareable eats such as the Mediterranean Plate and a variety of Specially Prepared Pizzas. Perfect place to enjoy the company of your friends and get a little unplugged.

Downtown Kitchen + Cocktails houses an especially classy, open layout with both indoor and outdoor seating. This American restaurant offers delectable dishes like the Spicy Lamb Sausage (penne a la Mario Batali with creamy tomato sauce, minted pea coulis + Grana Padano) and Frog Wings (buttermilk fried, lemon pepper slaw, ranch dressing + hot, sweet + sour sauce). Great for group outings to enjoy specialty cuisine and drinks!

On A Roll Sushi is an elegant, contemporary restaurant that offers High-Quality Sushi with a trace of Southwestern zest. Enjoy a variety of Sashimi and Rolls or indulge in a Tempura Shrimp and Yellowtail Bowl. This restaurant is ideal for business lunches and/or a calming experience with a variety of tasty sushi.

Reilly Craft Pizza + Drink is a Modern Italian Restaurant and Artisan Pizzeria with a casual setting. It has an urban feel through its vaulted ceilings and original chalk art on the walls. Menu items include delicious Stuffed Mushrooms in Lemon Broth and Fennel Sausage and Roasted Pepper Brick-Oven Pizza. Great for a relaxing meal paired with a glass of red wine!

Cushing Street Bar & Restaurant is a "period" antique restaurant that dates back to 1972, with historic furnishings and original walls made of mud and straw. Their menu items include flavorful food such as the Sueno Burger with fresh roasted green chiles, bacon, and Swiss cheese. Great for large gatherings including birthdays, weddings, and various sponsored events!

Miss Saigon is one of the most identifiable Vietnamese restaurants in the Tucson area, which offers Pho, a rice noodle soup with beef broth, served various ways (rare tender beef slices, meat balls). This friendly atmosphere gives you the option to eat-in or take-out and prides itself in serving fresh, delicious, and quick meals! Downtown location has not yet opened but will be coming soon.

Elliott's on Congress is an American restaurant that provides a relaxing ambience and great food to match. Features a fully stocked bar with House-Infused Specialty Drinks like the Cucumber Press (Cucumber Vodka, Sierra Mist, and Soda) and a kitchen that offers Chocolate Covered Bacon; Elliott's is nothing short of interesting.

47 Scott serves modern American comfort food like their Stack of Grilled Cheese and the Angry Salmon. Specialty drinks include an assortment of wines and handcrafted cocktails to enjoy. The urban décor and brick outside seating provides a lounge-feel and a great place to gather with some good company.

Penca offers Mexico City Cuisine and an International Bar. Their dinner menu includes Appetizers such as Ceviche (lime cured swordfish, traditionally seasoned) and Entrees like their Mole de Guajolote (traditional, Puebla style mole, with pulled turkey, roasted spring onions and fried plantains). With their old wood and brick surrounded walls, you'll be sure to feel trendy in the heart of this downtown restaurant!

La Cocina is known as "Tucson's Venue with a Menu". Dig into one of their fresh, healthy menu items like the Quinoa Bowl with Braised Spinach and Roasted Vegetables. With a courtyard surrounded by plants, string lights, and candles, you'll be sure to enjoy a refreshing experience!

El Minuto Café has been serving Fine Mexican Food since 1939. This local, authentic restaurant offers traditional items like Shredded Beef Chimichangas and their Combination Plate (beef taco, tamale, cheese enchilada, beans). Great for a genuine taste of Mexico!
