Other Meetings of Interest

Promotion & Meeting Posting Policy

The North American Neuro-Ophthalmology Society (NANOS) is committed to promoting medical education, advancing the exchange of scientific information, and supporting excellence in patient care. As part of this mission, NANOS also supports collaboration among medical specialties and among healthcare professionals worldwide who share our values.

Other Meetings of Interest: Posting Criteria

NANOS will promote meetings of interest to neuro-ophthalmologists on the Other Meetings of Interest webpage when both of the following criteria are met:

1. A NANOS member is chairing or organizing a session of the meeting.
2. The program is of neuro-ophthalmologic interest.

To request a posting, please email your promotion request—along with confirmation that the meeting meets the two criteria above—to Billy Atwell, NANOS Communications at communications@nanosweb.org.

Please note:

- Meeting promotions on NANOSNET are not permitted.
- Meetings of interest may be included in the NANOS Newsletter if timing allows.

Disclaimer for Posted Meetings

Disclaimer:

The posting of this information should not be considered a NANOS endorsement or recommendation of the meeting, conference, or congress.

Paid Promotion & Advertising Opportunities

NANOS offers several promotional opportunities for a fee, including:

- E-blast to the membership
- Social media promotion
- Mention in the NANOS newsletter
- Website promotion for meetings that do not meet the posting criteria
- Marketing collaboration and promotional packages

For pricing, please contact Cheryl Bird, NANOS Fundraising and Development Specialist at partnerships@nanosweb.org

All paid promotions require pre-approval by the NANOS Board. Priority is given to NANOS strategic partners and marketing collaboration packages. Messages or promotions not aligned with the NANOS mission will not be accepted.
